DONATION SUPPORTS FAMILIES WHO ARE BATTLING CANCER

The Rotary Club of Hanover NJ

The Rotary Club of Hanover NJ recently awarded the Johnny Kinney Memorial Foundation one thousand dollars to aid in their continued support to children and their families who are battling cancer.

Johnny Kinney was a brave young warrior who battled Osteosarcoma, a rare and highly aggressive form of bone cancer, for over two grueling years until he lost the battle at the age of 14.

Johnny's parents Gayle and John Kinney, along with the assistance of family and friends, formed this foundation to support "Johnny's Closet". The inspiration for this initiative came to Gayle Kinney after reflecting on their experiences at the hospital, where Johnny's daily/weekly check-ups sometimes led to unexpected situations requiring a change of clothing for him or Gayle. A change of clothing wasn't always available, and if it was, the sizes available were not always suitable.

The foundation continuously stocks a wardrobe with clothing spanning from infant sizes to adults for "Johnny's Closet," located in the Goryeb Children's Hospital/Valerie Fund Center in Morristown, NJ, where Johnny underwent treatment. This is the first initiative of its kind.

To learn more about Johnny's Closet, Johnny Kinney and what types of new clothing are needed or to make a monetary donation, please visit: johnnykinneymemorialfoundation.org

Rotary International is a global network of more than 1.2 million neighbors, friends and leaders who see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change across the globe, in our communities and in ourselves.

The Hanover Rotary Club is dedicated to enriching lives by providing service to others, goodwill and peace through our fellowship of business, professional and community leaders.

If you want to join us or speak at one of our meetings, please visit hanoverrotaryclub.org.

Hanover Rotary meets at 7:30 a.m. Thursday mornings at IHOP, 102 East Hanover Ave. in Cedar Knolls.

INFORMATIONAL SEMINAR ON VETERANS BENEFITS

Veterans, Families, and Friends Encouraged to Attend Florham Park Library On Thursday, September 11th, at 10:00 a.m., a crucial informational seminar will be held at the Florham Park Public Library for all veterans, as well as their families and friends. This event is designed to help attendees navigate and understand the various benefits available to those who served in the United States Armed Forces.

Whether you're a veteran or someone looking to support a loved one who has served, this seminar is a great opportunity to learn about important resources that may be available to you. Many benefits go unclaimed due to a lack of awareness, and this session aims to highlight some of the valuable support programs for which you may qualify.

Representatives from the Department of New Jersey Military and Veterans Affairs and VA New Jersey Healthcare will provide expert guidance on a range of topics including:

How to file a claim with the VA for injuries or illnesses incurred during active duty

- Upgrading existing claims
- VA medical program eligibility
- Disability Compensation
- Education & Training (GI Bill)
- VA Home Loans
- Memorial & Burial Benefits
- Pension Programs

A Q&A session will follow, allowing participants to ask specific questions and receive tailored advice.

This event is free and open to the public. Reserve your spot through the Library website florhamparklib.org or call the Library at 973-377-2694.

Presenters: Yasmin Rodriguez, NJ Department of Military and Veterans Affairs; Scott Dadaian, VA New Jersey Healthcare; and Charles Jurgensen, Veterans Services Officer, Morris County Department of the Aging (retired)
