FLORENCE COCCINO COURTYARD DEDICATION

Thursday Morning Club

Thanks to a donation from the family of Florence Coccino, the Madison Community House now has a beautiful new outdoor space. Florence was a member of the Thursday Morning Club (TMC) for over 50 years before she passed. She contributed so much of herself in time and talent over those years. She started the catering department and oversaw money matters at various events. She was known to always greet you with a smile and a kind word.

During this year's TMC annual "Welcome Back Luncheon" on September 18th at the Madison Community House, Florence's daughter (Patti Kreitler) and granddaughter (Tara Kreitler) were thanked for their generosity. They were able to witness first hand the lovely tranquil space which was created; where members and guests can gather or use as an extension of the gym while entertaining. As Patti Kreitler said, "Mom would have absolutely loved it! It makes us so happy that a little piece of Florence will remain at 25 Cook Ave." In Florence's memory, the plaque hanging on the wall of the side entrance to the Madison Community House reads "The Florence Coccino Courtyard". Thanks to those members of the Thursday Morning Club who helped make this new courtyard a reality, in particular, Gerri Meer who oversaw the project.

The Thursday Morning Club, organized in 1896, is a non-profit which provides services for Madison area communities. It owns, operates, and maintains the Madison Community House and is a member of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's clubs (NJSFWC) and of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC). If you would like to serve the community, make new friends, and enjoy programs and activities, consider joining the Thursday morning Club; for more information, call the community House at 973-377-0244 or visit www.TMCMCH.org.

MY UNAUTHORIZED
Hallmark
MOVIE MUSICAL

A fun-filled evening including hors d'oeuvres, drinks, live musical production, dessert bar, raffles and more. All to help raise funds for future Sieminski Theater productions.

The Sieminski Theater is a 501c3 performing arts non-profit.

For more information or tickets, visit
SieminskiTheater.org or call (908) 580-3892

Saturday November 15th at 6:00pm join us for this fun-filled evening and fundraising event for the Sieminski Theater! Just in time for the holiday Hallmark movie season, and who doesn't love those cheesy Hallmark holiday movies! "My Unauthorized Hallmark Movie Musical!"

The evening will start with a cocktail reception in the lobby with Hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. Then move into the theater for this delightful, lighthearted musical production. Afterwards, enjoy a dessert bar and champagne and an opportunity to meet the star of the show. There will be raffles, drawings and more surprises. All proceeds from this fundraiser will go to future programming at the Sieminski Theater. An event not to be missed and will help keep the Arts alive at the Sieminski Theater!!

ABOUT THE SIEMINSKI THEATER:

Bringing a professional performing arts venue with a diverse lineup of entertainment to Basking Ridge and the surrounding communities makes the Sieminski Theater and Somerset County an artistic and cultural destination. We enjoy a newly expanded performance schedule from American Theater Group, Light Opera of New Jersey, New Jersey Festival Orchestra, Trilogy Repertory, and countless national touring groups. Our intimate, award-winning non-profit venue features technical amenities that rival any Broadway theater. Visit us at www.sieminskitheater.org to view our upcoming entertainment schedule, where any seat is the best seat in the house.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY ANNUAL APPEAL

Do your children participate in the Madison Library’s Summer Reading Program? Has your family used the Museum Pass program available through the Library? These programs – and others – are made possible by the Friends of the Madison Public Library (the Friends), a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization of dedicated volunteers. Since 1938, through a variety of activities and programs, the Friends have provided support, advocacy, and funding for projects and collections to enhance the Library experience.

According to Library Director Lynn Favreau, “Because of the fundraising efforts of the Friends, the Library is able to expand its offerings to the Madison community every year. But the Friends do far more than raise money. They advocate for the Library at every opportunity and they lend helping hands to the staff on many occasions.”

Each year, the Friends reach out to the community to ask for its support for our Library – and our 2025 Annual Appeal is beginning now. With many generous donations, the Appeal averages $40,000 each year.

These donations are responsible for funding programs and materials that are not covered by the annual Borough of Madison Library budget. The Library and its patrons rely on these contributions to the Friends for supplemental funding. Gifts will enable the Friends to support funding for the Library’s collection of books, videos and streaming services. Popular items, including the Summer Reading Program and the Museum Pass program mentioned above, are fully funded by contributions. And, thanks to the support of generous donors, the Friends were also able to contribute $100,000 towards the Library’s recent renovations.

Please support the Library this year by contributing to the Friends’ 2025 Annual Appeal. Donations can be made by visiting the Friends website friendsmadisonnjlibrary.org and making a secure online donation.

Checks made out to “Friends of the Madison Library” may also be mailed to 39 Keep Street, Madison, New Jersey 07940.

THE 21ST CENTURY LIBRARY - NOV. 5

MADISON AREA AAUW BRANCH

Join us at the Madison Public Library on Wednesday, Nov 5, 2025, from 1:30 to 3 p.m. in the Chase Room. The Madison Area AAUW Branch is sponsoring a program on the 21st century public library. Lynn Favreau, Director of the Madison Public Library will speak on “Refreshing for Today; Preparing for Tomorrow.” Lynn will discuss how the ongoing evolution of library services and use served to inform the renovation of a mid-century modern space into a 21st century-friendly one. The program is free, open to all, and requires no reservations.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Lynn Favreau has been the Director of the Madison Public Library for 8 + years. Prior to that she held the same position at the Mountainside Public Library. Lynn has a BA in History and German, a Master’s in Library Science and Graduate Diploma in Education from McGill University.

ABOUT MADISON AREA AAUW BRANCH

AAUW has been transforming women’s lives for more than a century. Our Madison area branch continues to support education with grants, programs that expose teen girls to STEM, topical monthly programs, and member special interest groups such as a book club, a mahjong game, book sales and more. Join us to find purpose, community and friendship at madisonareaaauw.org.

NJ FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA: CANDLELIGHT CONCERT AND TENORS RETURN

Step into an evening of sophistication and charm as the New Jersey Festival Orchestra presents its first-ever candlelight concert, Romance in the Mansion, on Saturday, November 15 at 6:30 PM at the James Ward Mansion in Westfield.

Under the baton of Music Director and Maestro David Wroe, a string quartet of NJFO musicians — Bradley Bosenbeck (Violin I), Théo

Payen (Violin II), Gregory Williams (Viola), and Ansel Cohen (Cello) — will perform an intimate program that blends the romance of Broadway, the emotion of cinematic scores, and the allure of contemporary classics. Audiences will be swept away by lush arrangements from beloved artists such as ABBA, Coldplay, George Gershwin, and more — all illuminated by the warm glow of candlelight in one of Westfield's most elegant settings.

Guests can indulge in complimentary wine and small plates as they enjoy this unique fusion of artistry and atmosphere. With its golden décor, intimate seating, and unforgettable musical program, Romance in the Mansion promises to be a highlight of the NJFO season.

NJFO gratefully acknowledges the Ward family for generously sharing their beautiful space to support this fundraising event. Proceeds will help bring notable soloists to future NJFO concerts and fund community initiatives such as the orchestra's Listening is Healing music therapy program. Earlier this season, NJFO musicians Yifei Xu and Matthew Armbruster shared the gift of music with patients at Overlook Hospital in Summit, NJ, an inspiring example of the impact programs like Listening is Healing bring to the community.

"We are thrilled to present this intimate concert experience and deeply grateful for the generosity that allows us to continue sharing music both on stage and beyond," said Maestro Wroe.

Following Romance in the Mansion, NJFO rings in the festive season with one of its most anticipated events — The Return of the Holiday Tenors.

Back by popular demand, this symphonic spectacular will fill the concert hall with the magic of the holidays, featuring award-winning tenors John Kun Park, Luke Norvell, and Michael DeShield alongside guest choruses and the full New Jersey Festival Orchestra. Together, they'll perform an uplifting program of holiday classics, Broadway-style showstoppers, and beloved seasonal songs that capture the joy and wonder of the season.

Under Maestro Wroe's direction, this festive performance blends grand symphonic arrangements with soaring vocals and heartwarming moments, making it a beloved tradition for families across New Jersey.

Performances take place on Saturday, December 6, at 7:00 PM at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield, and on Sunday, December 7, at 3:00 PM at The Concert Hall at Drew University in Madison.

From the candlelit elegance of Romance in the Mansion to the jubilant voices of The Return of the Holiday Tenors, NJFO's 2025 season offers something truly special for every music lover.

Tickets are available at njfestivalorchestra.org or by calling the NJFO office at (908) 232-9400 during operational hours. Seating is limited, and early reservations are encouraged.

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA AT TWIN MAPLES

The entire family is invited to one of the areas loveliest historic homes, Twin Maples in Summit, on Saturday or Sunday, December 6 and 7 to join Santa for food and fun. The weekend event is hosted by the Fortnightly Club of Summit to benefit historic preservation. Festivities begin at 9:15 a.m. each day with a delicious Holiday ‘Breakfast with Santa’ served in the beautifully decorated ballroom with catering by ‘What a Dish.’ For those who can’t make it for breakfast, ‘Brunch with Santa’ will be served each day at 11:15 a.m. All seatings include a children’s buffet, adult served meal, photos with Santa, live music and more. This year’s beautiful holiday décor features a ‘Nutcracker’ theme, so don’t be surprised to see Clara, the Sugar Plum Fairies and some really naughty mice. Tickets to Santa at Twin Maples can be purchased at <https://www.fortnightlyclub.org> or through Eventbrite. Seating is limited. Pricing for Breakfast with Santa is $45 for adults and $20 for children under 12. Please bring booster seats for children. Highchairs are not available.

The weekend event benefits the preservation of Twin Maples, 214 Springfield Avenue, Summit, a property on the New Jersey and National Historic Registers. The house was designed and built by New York architect Alfred F. Norris in the Colonial Revival style in 1908 and resembles the White House. The Fortnightly Club purchased the property in 1949. Today, Twin Maples serves as a clubhouse and hosts many community events and fundraisers. The Fortnightly Club of Summit, a non-profit organization founded in 1893, offers women camaraderie and a full calendar of interesting events and volunteer opportunities. The Club supports the preservation of Twin Maples, education, the arts and humanitarian efforts. For over thirty-years the Club has awarded annual scholarships to deserving young, local women. Fortnightly Club’s 104 members are from Summit and many neighboring towns. To join or for more information, visit the Club’s website at www.fortnightlyclub.org.

ALL SAINTS' DAY NEW ORLEANS-STYLE JAZZ CELEBRATION - NOV 2

Madison United Methodist Church
On Sunday, November 2, the Madison United Methodist Church will join Christians around the world in commemorating All Saints' Day, a cherished tradition in many liturgical churches. In the United Methodist Church, this day offers a sacred moment to remember loved ones who have passed away, honoring both the great saints of history and the "everyday saints" who now rest in God's care.

This year, the Madison congregation is adding a joyful twist. The church will celebrate New Orleans-style, with a jazz band blending reverence with rhythm. The service will begin in quiet reflection, offering space to remember those who have gone before us. As worship unfolds, the music and mood will rise in celebration of their lives and the hope of eternal joy.

The morning will conclude with a rousing rendition of the beloved jazz standard "When the Saints Go Marching In," inviting people to dance and celebrate the lives of the saints. Worshippers are invited to bring an ornament representing a special memory of a loved one, though participation is open to all, whether or not you bring something to share.

Worship begins at 10:00 a.m. at 24 Madison Avenue. For more details, please get in touch with the church office at 973-377-1231 or church@umcmadison.org.

FRELINGHUYSEN ARBORETUM TO BE SITE OF NEW TRIBUTE TO VETERANS

County of Morris

The Morris County Park Commission and the Morris County Board of County Commissioners recently joined Veterans Valor of New Jersey at the Frelinghuysen Arboretum for a formal signing of an agreement establishing The Healing Garden of Morris, a new public space dedicated to honoring veterans and supporting their families.

The agreement, signed by Park Commission Executive Director Dave Helmer, Park

Commission President Stuart Lasser, and Veterans Valor Chairman Charlie Iuliano, marks the official launch of a project more than two years in the making.

The purpose of The Healing Garden of Morris rests within its name – a garden that serves as a place for peace, reflection and spiritual renewal, while allowing veterans and the broader community to connect. Envisioned as a “living tribute,” the plan is for the garden to host veteran-related art, horticultural programs, wellness seminars and opportunities for creative expression. At its core is the Disarm PTSD initiative, a campaign to help veterans transform their experiences with service-related trauma into a source of purpose and connection.

Will Draper, executive director of Veterans Valor listed and described each of the areas envisioned:

1. Point of Sacrifice: Acknowledging the bravery and sacrifices made by service members.
2. Medevac: Understanding the critical moments of medical evacuation and care in the field.
3. Triage: Exploring the initial assessments and treatments veterans receive upon return.
4. Homeward: Celebrating the emotional journey of returning home and reuniting with loved ones.
5. Recovery: Highlighting the ongoing physical and mental health support essential for veterans.
6. Fallen: Honoring those who lost the battle at home, recognizing their sacrifice and legacy.

7. New Life: Inspiring hope and new beginnings for veterans and their families.

During the event, several veterans -- Aaron Oliver, a 21-year U.S. Army veteran; Rob Hughes, retired U.S. Navy captain and board member of Veterans Valor; and Peter Danchise, a Vietnam veteran and artist -- spoke about the challenges they faced and continue to face with PTSD and readjusting to life after war. They emphasized how meaningful this project is to them and to other veterans who share those experiences. Following the signing, attendees toured the future garden site.

Morris County continues to prioritize veterans through programs and partnerships that provide support and recognition. Last year, the county expanded the Veterans Services Office in Morris Township to accommodate a federal Veterans Affairs Community Access Point. In September, the county partnered with the County College of Morris to provide a Veterans Services Officer twice a month at the college’s Veterans Resource Center.

Veterans Valor, also known as The Healing Gardens of Morris, Inc., is a nonprofit dedicated to honoring and supporting New Jersey veterans, especially those wounded in service, and their families.

The group aims to raise awareness of post-service challenges and create opportunities for healing and connection through community-driven initiatives.

For more information about The Healing Garden of Morris and ways to support the project, visit VeteransValorofNJ.org.

EXPERIENCE ROCK, SOUL & OLDIES AT DREW

Get ready for a season of unforgettable live music that spans generations and genres. Drew University Concert Hall is hosting a powerhouse lineup of shows that bring the best of American rock, soul, and oldies to the stage. Whether you're a lifelong fan or discovering these classics for the first time, each performance promises a night of nostalgia, energy, and pure musical joy.

ROCK & SOUL HIGHLIGHTS

NOV. 1 – THE B STREET BAND: THE MUSIC OF BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

Kick off the series with the ultimate tribute to The Boss. The B Street Band has been electrifying audiences for over 40 years with their spot-on renditions of Springsteen's greatest hits. Expect a high-energy night of sing-alongs, storytelling, and Springsteen magic.

NOV. 21 – MOTOR CITY REVUE: MOTOWN TRIBUTE FEATURING LAYONNE HOLMES

Feel the groove with this 11-piece powerhouse that brings the golden age of Motown to life. With rich harmonies, tight rhythms, and powerhouse vocals.

DEC. 14 – TRIBUTES TO MELLENCAMP AND BAD COMPANY: ONE STAGE, ONE NIGHT

Two rock legends, one epic night. Experience the heartland grit and storytelling of John Mellencamp alongside the anthemic rock energy of Bad Company.

OLDIES & HOLIDAY FAVORITES

NOV. 14 – THE CYRKLE & BILLY J. KRAMER: MEMORIES OF THE HITS, '60S & THE BEATLES

Step back into the era of peace, love, and chart-topping harmonies. These original hitmakers bring the British Invasion era to life with timeless songs, behind-the-scenes stories.

NOV. 29 – CHRISTMAS WITH THE DUPREES & ANTHONY DUKE CLAUS

Celebrate the season with the smooth harmonies and timeless charm of The Duprees.
