PAT MILFORD CELEBRATES KIDNEY TRANSPLANT CONNECTION

NJ Sharing Network

Livingston resident Patricia "Pat" Milford and Wayne resident Jean Sime celebrated a remarkable milestone while representing Team Liberty at the 2026 Transplant Games of America in Denver, Colorado, commemorating the seventh anniversary of the lifesaving kidney transplant that forever changed both of their lives.

The biennial Transplant Games brought together thousands of transplant recipients, living donors, donor families, and supporters from all 50 states and several countries for a week of athletic competition, camaraderie, and celebration. Participants competed in more than 20 events including basketball, track and field, swimming, pickleball, bowling, cornhole, and trivia. This year's Games also set a Guinness World Record for the largest gathering of living organ donors and transplant recipients, with 966 participants assembled in one place.

Pat Milford and Jean Sime represented Team Liberty, a program of the Sharing Network Foundation that includes participants from New Jersey, New York, and Connecticut. The pair competed in bowling, team trivia, darts and Texas Hold 'Em.

Their amazing connection began seven years ago when Pat Milford, a longtime nurse at Mountainside Medical Center, volunteered to become a living kidney donor for someone she had never met. That someone was Jean Sime, who had spent years battling chronic kidney disease and undergoing dialysis while waiting for a transplant. What began as a selfless act of generosity has since grown into a lifelong friendship the two women often describe as a sisterhood.

"Celebrating our transplant anniversary at the Transplant Games made the experience even more unforgettable," said Jean. "Looking around, I saw thousands of people who have all been given another chance at life through organ donation. Being there together with Pat, my living kidney donor, was a precious gift. Many transplant recipients never know who their donor is, while others may know them, but don't have the opportunity to share life experiences and celebrate milestones together. I will never take this gift for granted."

For Pat, the anniversary was equally emotional.

"Seven years have gone by so quickly, and seeing Jean healthy, active, and enjoying life is the greatest gift I could ever receive," said Pat. "Being together at the Transplant Games reminded us how one act of kindness can ripple through so many lives. I hope our story encourages more people to learn about living donation and deceased organ and tissue donation because you truly have the power to save the lives of others."

According to the United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS) and NJ Sharing Network, more than 100,000 Americans — including nearly 4,000 New Jersey residents — are currently waiting for a lifesaving organ transplant. Learn more or register as a donor at NJSharingNetwork.org.

WILSON LIU NAMED FINALIST IN INTERNATIONAL PIANO COMPETITION

12-year-old Wilson Liu, a student at Mount Pleasant Middle School, has been named a Finalist at the 2026 Gina Bachauer International Junior Piano Competition, one of the world's most prestigious international piano competitions for young musicians. Wilson advanced to the Final Round as one of only five finalists and was the only North American pianist to reach the finals.

Held in Salt Lake City, Utah, the 2026 competition celebrated the 50th Anniversary of the Gina Bachauer International Piano Foundation and brought together exceptional young pianists from 14 countries. Following two highly competitive solo rounds, Wilson earned his place in the Final Round, representing Mount Pleasant Middle School and Livingston Public Schools on the international stage.

Wilson has studied at The Juilliard School Pre-College Division since the age of 7, where he continues to refine his artistry while balancing his academic studies. Through competitions, performances, and community engagement, he hopes to inspire others by sharing the joy of classical music.

Wilson's achievements reflect years of dedication, perseverance, and a deep passion for music. His success on the international stage is a source of pride for Mount Pleasant Middle School, Livingston Public Schools, and the entire Livingston community.

SUMMIT SUMMER SIDEWALK SALE

Shoppers, get ready to stroll and save. Summit Downtown, Inc. (SDI) is thrilled to announce the return of the Summit Summer Sidewalk Sale, reviving a beloved community tradition for the first time in over a decade. The highly anticipated three-day shopping event will take place from Thursday, August 27 through Saturday, August 29, 2026, running from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. each day.

To ensure smooth traffic flow and accessibility throughout the downtown district, no streets will be closed for the event. Shoppers are encouraged to explore the entire downtown to discover sales from a wide variety of participating boutiques, specialty shops, and local favorites. Standard parking rates and regulations will remain in effect in all municipal lots and garages during the three-day event.

While the full list of participating businesses will be finalized closer to the event dates, shoppers are encouraged to follow Summit Downtown on social media for live, on-site content, sneak peeks of exclusive merchandise, and real-time deal announcements throughout the weekend.

For more information about the Summit Summer Sidewalk Sale and a growing list of participating retailers, please visit SummitDowntown.org or follow @SummitDowntown on all social channels.

KOREAN WAR ARMISTICE DAY CEREMONY

The Korean War Armistice Agreement is one of the most unique military agreements in modern history. Signed on July 27, 1953, it successfully brought an end to three years of brutal combat, yet it was never a permanent peace treaty. Technically, the conflict is still frozen to this day.

The Korean War is called the forgotten war. The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2856 of Livingston do not forget. Each year they conduct a ceremony to honor the veterans and commemorate the conflict.

This year the ceremony, was held on July 26 at the Livingston Library. The event featured World War 11 veteran, Dr. Hy Fisher, along with Korean War veterans and or their families.

VFW post chaplain Charles P. Quinn conducted the ceremony, along with two speakers from the VFW, LTC Steve Hoffman and Jr. Vice Commander George Walsh. These veterans explained the combat part and the noncombat years which followed.

Families were asked to bring memorabilia which was displayed.

The ceremony was well attended. Those in attendance enjoyed looking at the memorabilia.

Believe It or Not! Fabric, Stamps, History and Creativity as Remnants of Communication
2 p.m. August 2
Artist Audrey Yankielun. The postage stamp is the last 'remnant of the communication' between hopeful sender and eventual receiver. What a shame to keep these colorful and beautiful stamps hidden away in an album on a shelf. What to do? See how 3-D, 2-D art and postage stamps get an avid stamp of approval from this artist. She said Ripley's Believe It or Not! acquiring her themed women's dress made of 1,200 hand-stitched used stamps was the greatest compliment to her work! With great attention to detail, Audrey uses multiple stamps in her work-mindful not is repeat the same stamp twice when designing a stripe or patchwork pattern.

Artist Maria Domenico Lupo. Take a deep dive into art, process, healing and the mind and create a personal mandala to enrich your creative process and unlock your unconscious thoughts through the joy of art. Gain further insight into your artistic and creative style with watercolors, pastels, colored pencils and markers led by a board-certified Art Therapist who has a history of exploring roots.

Believe It or Not! Fabric, Stamps, History and Creativity as Remnants of Communication
2 p.m. August 16
Artist Audrey Yankielun. Postal service here is tops! How does muse lead to inspiration? Discover what led to the melding of many talents with stamps to create fabric, notecards and more. Explore many historic stamps this artist uses with diverse media and wonders at the stories all these communications could tell or will tell. Her postage stamp dress, now in Ripley's permanent collection, features 19 prominent women in an ombré-inspired design is one of these stories to be told. You will note that Audrey is mindful not to repeat the same stamp twice when she designs a stripe or patchwork pattern.

ANSWERING SUICIDE PREVENTION & CRISIS CALLS

Caring Contact

Caring Contact, an award-winning volunteer-staffed hotline that answers 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline calls—primarily from callers in seven counties in Central and Northern New Jersey—has seen a dramatic rise in the number of calls coming in over the last two years. In 2025 they answered 25,700 calls, the most in their 50-year history, and the call rates have risen over 70% in 2026.

"Every 988 call represents someone bravely reaching out in a moment of profound need. The increase in calls tells us that more people know help is available—and that when compassionate, trained Listeners answer, it can make a lifesaving difference," explains Mary Claire Givelber, Executive Director, Caring Contact.

THE GOOD NEWS — IT'S WORKING

The rising rates of Callers correlates to a 2026 JAMA study, that after the launch of the national 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline in 2022, suicide deaths among adolescents and young adults (ages 15–34) dropped 11% compared to projected rates from 2022–2024.* The largest declines were seen in states with the highest 988 call volumes.

At Caring Contact, they see evidence of this every day. Recently a teen Caller coping with anxiety and loneliness said, "Thank you very much for talking to me. I think I'm going to talk some things over with my parents about how I've been feeling. I spoke with you guys, and it made me realize that I'm not alone."

AS THE CALL RATES RISE, SO DOES THE NEED FOR TRAINED VOLUNTEER LISTENERS

Twice a year Caring Contact offers an intensive 9-week in-person & hybrid training class to prepare volunteer Listeners to offer nonjudgemental, empathetic Listening to Callers experiencing crisis and thoughts of suicide. Once trained, volunteers provide 9 hours a month of Lifeline listening. Become a volunteer 988 Listener—applications are open for fall training, September 15th through November 17th, 2026, on Tuesday nights, alternating between in-person classrooms in Scotch Plains and remote classes, with one full weekend of ASIST training. To be considered, fill out an application at CaringContact.org/training.

LISTENING IS A REWARDING VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

A recent survey of Caring Contact volunteer Listeners found that 100% of respondents feel that "their work is making a difference" and that the "training prepared them well" for this opportunity. A Listener recently said, "It is a rich experience that allows you to make a direct impact on your life, support others and be a part of a diverse and vibrant community with like-minded values anchored on deep compassion and care for others."

In addition, Listeners report that the Active Listening skills they've learned also transfer to leadership roles, at work and with family and friends. "It's the greatest gift a person can give to another. To be with them without trying to change them. To listen with empathy helps others feel less alone. To not be judged but to be accepted for feeling whatever one is feeling. It's uncommon for people to be able to say what they need to say and have someone listen without judging them. Again, such a gift," reports a Caring Contact Listener.

"My time with this organization has been life changing." – Caring Contact Volunteer Listener
